INTRODUCTION

DFMA is a one year, distance education programme on financial management for Non Profit Organizations. It is a joint initiative of TISS & FMSF. The one year Diploma in Financial Management and Accountability aims at building the capacity of individuals wanting to join the sector as well as for persons already working in the sector in the areas of financial management and thereby promoting transparency and accountability in the sector. The program is taught on a web based interactive learning platform.

NEED

The financial management practices determine the effectiveness, accountability and transparency of the sector to a large extent. Even though some degrees, diplomas, or certificate programmes on rural management, management of non-profit organizations and related subjects are being offered by different institutions to cater to the needs of the voluntary sector, there still exists an unmet demand for specific capacity building in the area of financial management of voluntary organizations. This Diploma programme is designed to meet that unmet need in the voluntary sector.

OBJECTIVE

The overall objective of the programme is to promote accountability in the sector by strengthening the financial management practices and by building individual capacities.

Core Objectives of the DFMA Program:

- To introduce and familiarize personnel in the non-profit/voluntary sector to institutional, legal and regulatory framework governing the sector
- To build capacities of the personnel in the non-profit/voluntary sector in financial management
- To develop and institutionalize systems to enhance and ensure transparency

Alumni Speaks

"It has been an insightful experience for me as a student of DFMA course in the year 2008. The course seemed very interesting to me, very elaborate and thorough. The course is specific and well structured for the NGO and NPO sector. I am very satisfied and happy to have completed this course. The easy to use references materials are designed by renowned faculty have helped me out in day-to-day working conditions especially with regard to book keeping, legal compliance, taxes or any governance issues". - Mr. Bidyut Ranjan Sagar

"DFMA appears to me as a much-awaited unique education programme with respect to the financial management and accountability of NGOs. DFMA equips a person to have a clear understanding about voluntary sector, various laws applicable to it, system of accounting, reporting and over all, good governance. I got valuable insight from this course, especially through active and effective interactions with faculty members and other students. I personally recommend all those who work for NGO" - Mr. Jayan K.

Just finished my course on Diploma in Financial Management, excellent course and have used stuff in real world already! Great to broaden my horizon in NPO financial management. Thanks to FMSF and Dr. Manoj Fogla who taught with the wisdom only a true expert can have- highly recommended." - Ms. Astalakshmi Venkatesh

The course has been very useful since it covered the entire gamut, right from introduction of voluntary sector to accounting aspects to budgetary control and the governance issue. This gives a very holistic view of the sector as also the functioning of the organization. " - Mr. B. V. Soma Sastry
